FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

LOCAL COFFEEHOUSE TO CELEBRATE ONE YEAR ANNIVERSARY, DESPITE ECONOMY

Steeltown Coffee & Tea To Give Back To The Community At One Year Anniversary Party.

Pittsburg, CA - October 4, 2009. - Steeltown Coffee & Tea, the only independent "third-wave" espresso bar and coffeehouse in East Contra Costa County, has weathered the economic crisis and will celebrate this fact by hosting a one year anniversary party on Sunday, October 10.

"We owe our success to the incredible support we have received from the residents of Pittsburg, and surrounding communities. Without their belief in what we do and stand for we could not have survived in these challenging economic times and during Old Town Pittsburg's major redevelopment," says Steeltown owner Adrian Badger. "So, as a thank you, we are throwing a one year anniversary party at the coffeehouse next Sunday while raising funds for the Pittsburg Arts & Community Foundation," Badger added.

To raise money for the Pittsburg Arts & Community Foundation, a raffle for a brand new iPod Touch will be held all week, with the winning raffle ticket being drawn at the end of the party on Sunday. Tickets are available immediately at the coffeehouse and may be purchased for $1 each. "We are so pleased that Steeltown Coffee & Tea has chosen to support the Pittsburg Art & Community Foundation at their anniversary," says Rose Mary Tumbaga, Arts, Literacy and Education coordinator for the Foundation. "Steeltown is a great addition to Old Town and has brought a lot of positive attention to Pittsburg through their excellent coffee, art gallery and live music."

"We can't thank our community enough for helping make us the favorite coffeehouse in East County, and look forward to providing the best coffee, best service, and best experience for many years to come," says Badger.

The anniversary event will take place at Steeltown Coffee & Tea on Sunday, October 10, 2010 from 8 am to 4 pm. To celebrate the one year anniversary, all beverages will cost only $1. Music, a free photo booth and anniversary cake are also part of the event.
