FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

NEW UPSCALE COFFEEHOUSE NOW OPEN IN PITTSBURG'S OLD TOWN DISTRICT

Steeltown Coffee & Tea Joins New Old Town Restaurants Bringing Quality To Downtown Pittsburg.

Pittsburg, CA - September 14, 2009. - Steeltown Coffee and Tea, the new neighborhood Espresso Bar, opened its doors on Monday, September 7th, bringing the finest espresso, coffee and tea beverages to Contra Costa's East County. Steeltown Coffee & Tea joins the ranks of the other recently opened Old Town restaurants that are establishing Old Town as a food and beverage lover's destination.

Located within the recently renovated Mechanics Bank Building on the corner of Railroad Avenue and East 7th Street, Steeltown Coffee & Tea has received a warm and enthusiastic reception from local residents. "We are pleased with the response that the local residents and business have shown us", says Adrian Badger, owner and proprietor of Steeltown Coffee & Tea. "It's exciting that we're already seeing 'regular' customers coming to visit us every day for their morning coffee and pastry. The positive response we've received in only a week has been tremendous", Badger added.

Steeltown Coffee & Tea is open seven days a week and opens at 6:00 a.m. during the work week and 7:00 a.m. on weekends. They offer live music most Friday and Saturday evenings from 7:00 p.m. to 10:00 p.m.
